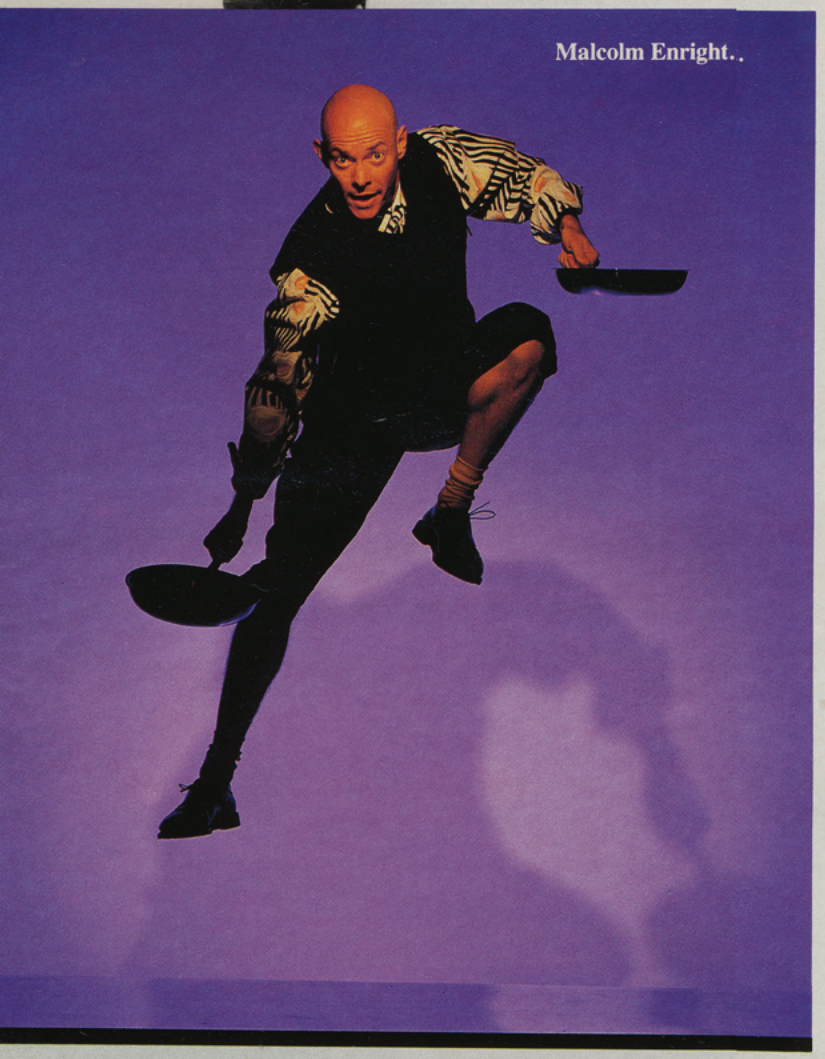
...hetreed was the store: all done in the same wood. Fantastic"

Alex Popov



Malcolm Enright..

Marcus Graham

actor. Jean-Paul Gaultier silk jacket, $1,600, from Miss Louise, Saba cotton T-shirt, $40. Levi's jeans. Belt from Trellini. Timberland shoes.

Iain Murray

yachtsman, boat designer, manager America's Cup. "What do I tend to wear? Crew shirts. Spray jackets. And Zegna suits."
Country Road cotton jacket, $350, and shirt, $89.

Tom Kanazaki

producer, West Street Productions, Sydney. "Somebody once described my usual style of dressing as Jack Kennedy on the golf course!"
Sidi beige linen jacket with rust and navy weave, $650. Louis Féraud fawn cotton trousers, $270. Polo Ralph Lauren blue cotton shirt, $110. Casa B'ena hat. Louis Féraud brown/green tie. Brown belt from L'Uomo. Timberland shoes.

Malcolm Enright

freelance creative director, Brisbane. "My dress sense is rather eclectic. I do what people don't normally do. It's the same as my attitude towards work."
Jean-Paul Gaultier wool waistcoat, $795, from Miss Louise. Moschino cotton shirt, $345, from Five Way Fusion. Najee cotton shorts, $79. Country Road socks. Robot shoes from Skin Deep.

Dean Parkinson

Honey Wagon van services. "Comfort. That's what it's all about."
JagMen cotton top (over shoulders), $90. Louis Féraud cotton jacket, $575. Polo Ralph Lauren cotton top, $110, and shorts, $90. Socks and shoes from Country Road.

Kim Snow

partner, Sedia. "I'm usually too busy to think past shirts and jeans. I wish someone could just dress me!"
Sportscraft taupe wool jacket, $439, and blue cotton shirt, $85. Louis Féraud beige trousers, $270. Alessi watch from Made Where. Louis Féraud tie and belt. Shoes and socks from Country Road. Sedia chair, $920 plus fabric, and Fifteen Torchere Lamp, $590.

Alex Popov

architect, with his model of the Bathers' Pavilion, Balmoral.

Stephen Cummings.