At current count I have downloaded and re-processed 32,923 found images for my Pink Folders, since 2013.
These 65 pinks are different to the thousands I have discretely added pink to, with these I just quickly selected a broad brush effect.
My usual ‘double trouble’ theme is at work here, but with no text this time.
All authors have given away their material when they digitally published their content. I have just enhanced all their brilliant work for my own amusement & for my small audience.
